DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

2. The amendments include:

Claims 1, 9 and 17

Canceled claims 25-31

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Applicant's amendments submitted 7/22/2009 in response to the rejections set forth in the previous Office action are sufficient to overcome the rejections. The examiner withdraws the rejections.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. Applicant's amendments submitted 7/22/2009 in response to the rejections set forth in the previous Office action are sufficient to overcome the rejections. The examiner withdraws the rejections.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

5. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to the applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Adam E. Call, Reg No. 46,646 at (813) 382-9345 on December 28, 2009.

Please amend claim as follows:

9. (Currently Amended) ~~(Previously Presented)~~ A computer comprising a memory for storing program instructions and a processor, responsive to the programming instructions, configured to: create a single recovery credit account for a customer with a charged-off credit account balance, the single recovery credit account not having a debt balance record; set an opening credit balance of the recovery credit account to a value equal to at least a portion of the charged-off credit account balance and wherein the opening credit balance represents the entire debt obligation of the customer related to the charged-off credit balance; receive a plurality of required payments; adjust the opening credit balance based on the received payments; and in response to receiving the payments, initiating an issuance of a card to the customer.

Reasons for Allowance

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter; the prior art fails to teach or render obvious the limitation of independent claims. The Applicant has claimed a method of recovering debt from a customer. Independent claim 1 discloses a recovering debt method wherein "the customer is required to make a plurality of payments before issuing a card for the single recovery credit account".

Claim 9 discloses a computer comprising memory for storing program instructions and a processor, responsive to the programming instructions, wherein the instructions require "the customer is required to make a plurality of payments before issuing a card for the single recovery credit account".

Claim 17 discloses a system with a means for "the customer is required to make a plurality of payments before issuing a card for the single recovery credit account".

The following prior art references have been deemed most relevant to the allowed claim(s).

The closest prior art US Pub No. 2002/0123962 A1 by Bryman et al. teaches specifically a system and method for providing a reaffirmation credit card wherein the customer is required to pay down the balance on the credit account before the credit is granted.

The closes prior art "Sears Tests Starter Card" Newsletter, News brief, January 28, 1997 (Sears), which teaches a starter card granted in response to delinquencies wherein the customer is given smaller credit.

Claims 1, 9 and 17 are allowed because Bryman and Sears references as discussed above as the closest prior art of record fails to teach or render obvious a method or system of debt recovery where the customer is required to make a plurality of payments before issuing a card for the single recovery credit account. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reason for Allowance".
